

Classroom Observation Protocol:

Selecting and Implementing Instructional Strategies for Student Learning

LENS # 5 Focus: Instructional Strategies

Teacher: _____ Grade Level/Subject: _____ Observer: _____ Date: _____

Elements and Indicators	Record of what teacher is doing	Record of what students are doing	Mode of Instruction *(TD, SF, IP)
1. A variety of instructional strategies are included in planning for the lesson *Reference instructional strategies companion document <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Instructional strategies are connected to intended learning goals and targets. * Reference Lens #1 			* TD= Teacher-Directed SF= Student- Focused IP= Independent Practice
2. Grouping of students is flexible and based on instructional needs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assessment data is used to inform student groupings
3. Instructional materials and resources are used to complement instruction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A variety of materials are used throughout the lesson Materials are organized and well managed
4. A variety of instructional strategies are implemented during the lesson *Reference instructional strategies companion document
5. Instructional strategies are adjusted based on observations and student feedback

Lens Five: Selecting and Implementing Instructional Strategies for Student Learning (Focus on Teaching)

A variety of instructional strategies are included in planning for the lesson and grouping of students is flexible and based on instructional needs	Instructional materials and resources are used to compliment instruction
A variety of instructional strategies are implemented during the lesson	Instructional strategies are adjusted based on observations and student feedback